

AI VOICE CLONING SURVIVAL GUIDE

IS THAT REALLY YOUR GRANDCHILD?

"You're not helpless. A code word, a verification call, and 60 seconds of critical thinking can stop a scam cold."

SCAMMERS CAN CLONE A LOVED ONE'S VOICE FROM JUST 3-5 SECONDS OF AUDIO.

REAL SCENARIO

An 86-year-old grandmother received a call from someone who sounded exactly like her granddaughter. The voice said she'd been in an accident, detained by police, and needed $6,000 in cash. She handed it over. Her granddaughter was safe at work. The voice was AI.

HOW THE SCAM WORKS

1

VOICE SAMPLE

Scammers find short audio clips from social media, public videos, or old voicemail.

2

VOICE CLONE

AI tools generate a convincing copy of that voice in seconds.

3

FAKE EMERGENCY

They call family pretending to be in trouble: "I'm hurt" or "I'm in jail."

4

URGENCY + SECRECY

Pressure to act immediately. "Don't tell anyone" blocks verification.

5

PAYMENT DEMAND

They push for wire transfer, gift cards, or crypto — fast.

HOW TO PROTECT YOUR FAMILY

1 SET A FAMILY CODE WORD (TODAY)

Pick a random phrase only immediate family knows. If someone calls with an emergency, ask for the code word. No exceptions.

2 VERIFY THROUGH A DIFFERENT CHANNEL

Hang up. Call back on the saved number you already trust. Text another family member to confirm.

3 RESIST URGENCY

Real emergencies have verifiable channels. If they say "don't tell anyone," tell everyone.

4 LIMIT PUBLIC VOICE CONTENT

Review social media privacy settings. Use a generic voicemail greeting. Be mindful of public voice clips.

5 EDUCATE YOUR FAMILY

Talk with parents, grandparents, and kids so everyone knows this scam exists. Make it a dinner table conversation, not a lecture.

YOUR FAMILY SECRET CODE WORD

Write it here. Share it only with immediate family. Never text it. Never email it.

IF YOU GET THE CALL

- ✓ Stay calm and slow the situation down.
- ✓ Ask specific questions only the real person would know.
- ✓ Use the family code word.
- ✓ Hang up and verify independently.
- ✓ Report it to the FTC at ReportFraud.ftc.gov

IF YOU ALREADY SENT MONEY

- ✓ Contact your bank immediately — reversals are sometimes possible.
- ✓ File a police report. Report to FTC and FBI IC3.
- ✓ Do not be embarrassed. These scams fool smart people every day.
